the 10 per cent. taken off their wages in 1877.William Hanlon, of Hanlon Brothers, the acrobats, while performing a flying trap-act in the Academy of Music,
New York, fell 40 feet to the orchestra, smashing two chairs, but was not seriously hurt.Mr. John Jay Knox, ex-United States comptroller, who arrived in New York from France, said that the American silver legislation, which has caused an advance in the price of silver, was looked upon with favor in Europe.The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers threaten a strike on the Southern Pacific, unless the company pays the wages of four engineers, who were discharged, but afterward reinstated, during the time they were laid off.On Wednesday the grand jury at Dover, N. H., began an investigation of the charge against Isaac Sawtelle of murdering his brother, Hiram, and the State expects to prove that the crime was committed in New Hampshire.A man named Quinn, becoming crazy from hunger, killed his wife and five children, at his ranch near Livingston, Mont. He was afterward killed by a poor fellow who tried to capture him. He was eating his dead boy when discovered.Henry E. Abbey has offered Anton Rubinstein, the composer and pianist, $100,000 for a tour through America during the coming season. The composer has not yet decided whether to accept or not, as the terms are vague and the tour long.Iron manufacturers in the Schuylkill Valley, Pa., declared that unless the railroads reduce the freight on iron, the competitors would force them to close their works, and as a result the roads rather than lose such good customers have made concessions.The gold excitement in northwest Wyoming has reached fever heat, and a regular stampede from Dayton and Sierdan has set in. A number of persons from the diggings report the discovery to be rich in placer gold, and that as high as $25 a day has been made by the men.
The heirs of the Kallbach family, most of whom reside in Philadelphia and other parts of Pennsylvania, are in receipt of information that a vast estate in Germany awaits them, and they are taking active steps to establish their identity. The property has been for some years in the possession of the German government, and is valued at the way from $18,000, 000 to $30,000,000.Foreign.

still.Thirty thousand persons participated in a meeting held in London to protest against Bishop O'Dwyer's criticism of Dillon, the Irish leader.The official report of the registrar of vital statistics shows that 27 persons have died in London during the past year of starvation, pure and simple.There are some cross-roads of American tourists in England that they can not secure berths on return steamers except by applying weeks in advance.A witness has been heard at St. Petersburg directing the formation of two squadrons of cavalry to be composed entirely of natives of the Caucasus.It is believed that the object of the Emperor William is to secure another peace conference to provide for a general disarmament of the great powers.Mr. Gladstone, who is at Hawarden, is enjoying remarkably good health. He is desirous of taking a long rest in the country before entering upon his autumn campaign.A caravan of 4,000 porters is about to start from Bagamoyo for Victoria Nyasaland. Fifteen hundred will revictual the French African mission stations in Central Africa.There is in London talk of an organization of railway and other corporations to hold ground against the gigantic and overwhelming influence of trades unionism in England.Advices from Samoa state that the consul at Apia has issued a proclamation in which they warn the natives against entering into any intrigue to replace King Mataafa.The trades unions at Melbourne are voting large sums in support of the striker in the coal trade. As a result of the strike 20 steamers are now lying idle in the harbor.Great reports are published in London concerning a new variety of cotton plant, the Mitafite. It is now exclusively sown in Egypt, but experts believe it can be raised in all cotton growing countries.The Queen of Italy has maintained her reputation for pluck and endurance by climbing a mountain 10,800 feet high in Switzerland during a rain storm, covered with snow before the top was reached.At a meeting of 5,000 dock laborers in London, over which John Burns presided, resolutions were adopted expressing sympathy with the American Knights of Labor in their strike, and hope for their success.M. de Freycinet, French minister of war, has issued a decree that the duel must cease to be compulsory in the French army, and that for the future the decision of the officers whether they will elect to fight or not will be left to their own discretion.An order from the Czar of Russia discharging all the army reserves of 1885, 1886, and 1887 into the reserves is interpreted to mean that the conference with the German emperor, which is now being arranged that will preserve the peace of Europe.A Negro Murderer a Pretty Widow.
At Goshen, Ind., on the 26th inst., Sam Wilson, a ruffianly negro, went to the house of Mrs. Matser, a young and pretty widow, whom he has been importunately wooing for the past two weeks, and calling her to the door, asked if she would not have him. Upon her refusal he drew his revolver and shot her through the heart, killing her instantly. He then shot and fatally wounded himself in the head.There is a dog in Topeka, Kan., which attends every funeral that takes place in that city. His owner lives on the road leading to the cemetery, and whenever a funeral passes the house the dog joins the procession and trots along beside the hearse.It costs the English government $2, 000,000 annually to support Queen Victoria and her immediate family. Whenever the Queen visits Balmoral Castle it takes $3,000 to defray the railroad expenses of the journey.John Ruskin's Attempted Suicide.
John Ruskin, the famous English art critic, is rapidly sinking. He is almost continuously delirious, and during these irrepressible moments he attempted suicide with a razor. The strictest watch is kept over him, despite which he has twice made this effort upon his life.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Latest Doings in the Field of Federal Legislation and Politics.

The Work in Congress.

THE SENATE.
A resolution was introduced by Mr.
Edmunds authorizing the sergeant at arms to procure a new clock in place of the historical timepiece that has so long served the Senate. Mr. Edmunds's resolution authorizing the President to exclude the products of any foreign state discriminating against the products of this country, was considered and laid on the table. The general deficiency bill was taken up and progress made in its consideration. A number of amendments were adopted. Discussion of the tariff bill was resumed, and continued with the same close consideration of each item that has hitherto marked the bill's progress.The resolutions introduced by Mr. Quay providing an order of business for the balance of the session were considered and referred to the committee on rules.Other resolutions were introduced providing for closing debate on the tariff bill on August 31, and for taking a vote thereon within five days thereafter and for transacting certain other business, and also providing for the postponement of the Federal elections bill till the next session, when it shall have the first call on the calendar. The House amendment to the bill (S. 3714) to provide apportionment of the proceeds of the sale of public lands to the support of agricultural colleges in the several States, was considered and referred to the committee on directing the committee on rules to make order to prevent the sale of spirituous or vinous liquors in the Senate wing of the Capitol was adopted after debate.Eulogies were pronounced over the late Senator Beck.HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The contested election case of Chalmers vs. Morgan was acted upon and decided in favor of the sitting member, Mr. Morgan. A bill granting increased pay to the employees of the Government Printing Office was passed. Considerable discussion took place over the order of business. The bill providing for appropriating a portion of the proceeds of the sale of public lands to the support of agricultural colleges in the several States, was considered and referred to the committee on rules. The bill providing for the inspection of mines, which attracted the customers, was passed as a special order, and was passed. House bill 11568, known as the "compound land" bill, was also considered under the special order, and was passed.
The committee report on the river and harbor bill was presented, the bill conferring recommendations non-concurrence with the Senate amendments, and asking for a conference, and the same was adopted.NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.
There are rumors abroad of more disagreement and filibustering in Congress, but they are to be accepted with caution.The investigation of Pension Commissioner Bismarck is in progress before the special committee appointed by Speaker Reed.The pure land anti-option bill, which passed the House Wednesday, is expected to be defeated in the Senate, owing to the pressure of other bills.
The family of the President will leave Cape May Point in a few days, closing their pleasant home there and going to Cresson for the remainder of the season.John W. Foster, who was formerly United States minister to Russia and to Spain, has addressed to Congress a formal protest against the Chinese exiles pending in the House "to absolutely prohibit the coming of Chinese persons into the United States."An agreement having been reached among the Republicans in the Senate, it is believed that the tariff bill will be debated and a vote secured upon it not later than September 5, and it is believed that Congress will adjourn not later than September 15, although some members assert that the work can not be finished before the adjournment.Assistant Secretary Nettleton, who has had charge of the Treasury Department during the last few days, being interviewed about the stringency in the money market, said he believed the emergency of the situation was passed.
What the department had already done he believed had made a return to the normal condition certain within a short time.WONDERFUL CAVERN FOUND.
Men Walk in It Over Twenty Miles in a Straight Line.There is intense excitement at Normandy, Tenn., over the discovery of a cave that so far seems to surpass the cave of the Mammoth. The cave is about 20 miles long and is now being explored by a party of gentlemen who discovered the entrance. The party entered the cave and walked a good distance before they were overtaken by the light from the mouth, which is about 5 feet in height and 12 in width. They having no light to go farther, returned to Normandy, got lanterns, and then went back to the cave, arriving there about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. They walked in what seemed to be a direct line all night, but they found no end.
There was a small creek running through the cave from northeast to southwest. The distance traveled could not be ascertained. The Grand and mighty power, has been driven into retiring and his place is taken by a new commander. The Chinese evidently mean that no European power shall have a predominant influence in their military or naval affairs. The Chinese now possess a powerful fleet, and one which properly officered would prove a formidable naval antagonist in war with any nation.Sons of Veterans in Camp.
A lively welcome was given to the Sons of Veterans, whose annual encampment was inaugurated in St. Louis on the 23d inst. The Grand parade on Tuesday was witnessed by an immense concourse, the mayor having declared a half holiday, so that all might witness
the parade.A ship Seventy days Overseas.
Much anxiety is felt in commercial
and shipping circles in London with regard to the safety of the British ship
Lord Raglan, which left San Francisco
with a cargo of wheat and is now 70 days overdue.England Will Hold On to Egypt.
A dispatch from Constantinople announces that Lord Salisbury, replying to the Porte's note, says the time is not ripe to evacuate Egypt.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Cholera has appeared at Natal, in England. A festival of the Panama Canal project are renewed.The Hanna Wagon Works, at Peoria, Ill., have been destroyed by fire.The British war ship Buzzard arrived at Halifax with 19 cases of yellow fever aboard.It is stated that the czar and czarina have promised Emperor William that they will visit Berlin in October.A special from Parkersburg, W. Va., says the oil tanks of Brown Bros. were destroyed by fire. Loss, $60,000.A purse of $500 has been offered by the Orange club of London for a looking match between Dempsey and Burke.Indian Commissioner Morgan has issued instructions that no more Indians shall be taken from reservations by traveling shows.Count Szechenyi, who was at the head of an expedition which was exploring the Hawaiian Islands, was murdered by his servants.There are a dozen cases of small pox in San Antonio, Tex. The outbreak was very sudden. Steps to prevent its spread have been taken.It is stated that a syndicate of sporting men at Ogden, Ore., have offered a purse of $30,000 for a fight between Sullivan and Jackson.An old carrier in which A. H. Stephens used to drive around Georgia on his speed making tours is to be offered for sale at Covington this week.Brief interviews with wholesale and retail merchants in the large cities show that the outlook for the fall and winter trade is full of promise of prosperity.Six citizens of Hugotown, Kan., on trial at Paris, Tex., have been sentenced to death for murder, the outgrowth of the county seat fight in No Man's Land.William Hanlon, who fell from the trapeze of the New York Academy of Music Saturday night, is resting quietly, with every prospect of a speedy recovery.The miners of Great Britain will be asked by the labor organizations to vote on the question of an eight hour working day before an international strike is ordered.Incendiary fires started four square feet in the oil field at Belmont, W. Va.
The tanks are all burning, and it is feared that the fires will spread to 50 other tanks in the field.Information sent to Capetown, South Africa, states that the Portuguese resolutely fired upon the British expedition under Thomson while it was proceeding along the British side of the Zambesi River.A dispatch from London says that Mr.
Robert Lincoln, United States minister to Great Britain, emphatically denies the truth of those reports which represent him as contemplating the tendering of his resignation.The cities in Berlin which openly announce the sale of horse meat are thoroughly dealt. The patrons of these places express great admiration for equine steak, but carping critics allege that it is the price and not the quality of the meat which attracts the customers.Thomas J. Clay has commenced suit against the Washington Park Club, of Chicago, to recover $11,155, the amount of the Hyde Park stakes won by Clay's horse, Balgovan, on July 17.The money is withheld because the owner of the race, who ran second, has filed a protest, which the racing stewards have not yet considered.The Rev. Dr. Burtwell, the late pastor of the Church of the Epiphany, who was removed from his charge on account of his expressed sympathy with the excommunicated priest, Dr. McElroy, has been temporarily suspended from the exercise of his functions as a Roman Catholic priest in the diocese of New York for failure to furnish an appeal and retrac-tion to Archbishop O'Connell.At a meeting of the Lancashire Minors' Federation the president stated that two messengers who came direct from the Emperor of Germany had waited on him and solicited information as to the condition of the British navy, and that at the same time since the resignation of Prince Bismarck the Emperor had become democratic, and desired to place the labor laws of Germany on an equality with those of England.An Alaska Volcano in Action.
Passengers on the steamer Arago confirm the report that Mount Bogoslov, Alaska, is in a state of eruption. The smoke left Oumukpa July 1, and at that time clouds of steam and smoke could be seen issuing from the volcano.While at night a pillar of fire thousands of feet in height was discernible for miles.
Bogoslov has been in a state of active eruption ever since. The light is a grand one, and mariners hope the activity will continue, as it serves as a light house in guiding vessels through Oumukpa Pass.
Steam and smoke have been seen to issue from the center, and fire and lava have daily been to be seen issuing from the mouth.China to Manage Her Own Navy.
Advices from the east show that the Chinese, after having expressed British officers to bring their fleet up to the desired standard of efficiency, are now getting rid of those officers. Admiral Lang, who has done much to make China a maritime power, has been driven into retiring and his place is taken by a new commander. The Chinese evidently mean that no European power
shall have a predominant influence in their military or naval affairs. The Chinese now possess a powerful fleet, and
one which properly officered would
prove a formidable naval antagonist in
war with any nation.Sons of Veterans in Camp.

Sons of Veterans, whose annual encampment was inaugurated in St. Louis on the 23d inst. The Grand parade on Tuesday was witnessed by an immense
concourse, the mayor having declared a
half holiday, so that all might witness
the parade.A ship Seventy days Overseas.
Much anxiety is felt in commercial
and shipping circles in London with regard to the safety of the British ship
Lord Raglan, which left San Francisco
with a cargo of wheat and is now 70
days overdue.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

For Congress—3rd District, BENJAMIN F. GRADY.

For Judge—6th District, EDWIN T. BOYKIN.

For Solicitor—6th District, OLIVER H. ALLEN.

CLINTON, N. C., AUG. 28, 1890.

So far as the Farmers' Alliance connects itself with the choice of candidates for public office we are in favor of it when it undertakes to support Democratic candidates and Democratic principles.—New Bern Journal.

The N. Y. Tribune, a bitter Radical paper, refers to C. W. McCune, the editor of the National Economist, as the "head devil" of the Alliance. It is unnecessary to say that the Tribune is owned and run by corporation money and is at the behest of Wall street.

A knitting mill has been established in Goldsboro. One established contemporary Argus was chiefly instructed in having the new enterprise about, and the stockholders have shown their appreciation of newspapers in general and of the progressiveness of Brother Robinson in particular, by naming the enterprise, "The Argus Knitting Mills."

John S. Leary, the negro lawyer, is out in an announcement of his candidacy for Congress in this district, and expects to get the black vote. Of course this means there will be no joint canvass. We had hoped that the best and strongest white Republican in the district would run, for we wished to see R. F. Grady put him to route. Nothing could do more to develop and bring out the latent power in Mr. Grady than a strong, able and hotly contested campaign.

THE NATIONAL ALLIANCE.

Polk Elected President—The Other Officers Elected.

The American Farmers' Encampment was in session last week in Reading, Pa. Col. L. L. Polk, president of the National Farmers' Alliance, made an address. He traced the progress of the new organization in its wonderful growth in the South and Southwest.

The officers elected to day are President, L. L. Polk, North Carolina; vice president, B. H. Clover, Kansas; secretary, J. H. Turner, Georgia; treasurer, H. W. Hickman, Missouri.

The Asheville Citizen of Aug. 21st says—

Viewed from any direction, Col. L. L. Polk has a long head. Noticing the quite general statement in the State press, that the farmers belonging to the Alliance were not united in support of the sub-treasury bill, The Citizen questioned Col. Polk particularly on that point. What he said appeared in Monday's Citizen in an interview which Col. Polk read over, before it was printed, and pronounced correct.

"I never knew a people to be so near a unit as they are on the sub-treasury bill, or on its principles," he said.

Further on in the same authorized interview Col. Polk said: "I find both republicans and democrats of the order equally zealous and determined to go to the source of the trouble now existing, to wit—the financial system of the government. We believe the sub-treasury bill is destined to reach the remedy, but it will not, we expect, and demand that congress will devise a measure that will do it. Our people are a unit on this point."

"But if it will not," in those five words Col. Polk admits that the measure may be faulty, that it may have to give way to something else. How, then, can he make indiscriminate support of it a final test for Alliance votes?

And Tuesday the Citizen reporter understood Capt. S. B. Alexander to say:

"The Alliance as a body will not oppose the election of Senator Vance and I am certain he will be returned. Some farmers will of course work against him, but the majority will support him as of old. The fact is, the farmers themselves are not solidly for the sub-treasury bill itself, although they are a unit in the support of the principles included in it, and we believe Vance will do just what is right."

Certainly the Alliance and the Democracy are near enough to touch hands, "Not far apart; near enough to shake hands!" Why, bless your life brother citizen, the Alliance is Democracy's family physician.—Ed. CAUCASIAN.

A SAMPSON LADY IN BOSTON.

As an Eye Witness She Describes the G. A. R. Parade from a Southern Standpoint.

(Special Correspondence.)

Boston, Aug. 18th 1890.
Dear Sir—I have thought many times that I would comply with my promise, but my time is so thoroughly occupied, I have few spare moments. The historical city of Boston has been fairly alive this week with strangers from all parts of the United States. With the exception of two, I have seen faces from every individual State in the Union, even distant Alaska was represented in the parade of the Grand Army here on last Tuesday. I took my stand in a prominent place where I might have the benefit of full view of the "Old Veteran" so-called, but in my opinion many a man in that long line of march never raised a gun except to fella squirrel or some other inoffensive little animal, many a one who never heard the roar of a Cannon except on a fourth of July celebration. But however from 12 a. m. to 7 p. m. I was gazing on this moving mass of human beings. One very patriotic company from the State of Maine had among their command the very identical old man that Billy Sherman rode on that memorable march from Atlanta to the sea. Not a few of us remember this march, he is 34 years old and is remarkably well preserved, of course he has grazed on the fat of the land ever since he brought his rider so successfully through that "fry" line of march with out a single or even the smell of fire about his clothes. We suppose this mule gets part of the pension money. Another company had a horse that was captured from the "Rebs" in the valley of Virginia. Our sister state Florida carried an ensign of Aligators entitled "Sherman's Bunnies," now just what they meant to infer was not exactly understood by a Boston reporter, he rather thought it is meant for a burlesque which of course did not set very well. Then came Texas with a large head of an ox, with mammoth horns, next Georgia with her cotton stalks, and so on through all the state with the exception of the two, for which I vainly looked: North Carolina and South Carolina had no representation in the G. A. R. parade at Boston. This gathering together of "Old Veterans" means money to Boston, it is said the city alone has taken in $750,000 this week, there has been thousands of visitors here besides many thousands soldiers with railroad fares to and from Boston, over $1,000,000 has been set in circulation, one banquet cost $9,000, and there were many of them. The President came here on the Man-of-War—Baltimore, he landed mid the roar of cannon and was escorted by a long line of clanking cavalry to hotel Vendome, a magnificent building 7 stories, superbly decorated with American flags and bunting, the decoration must have cost immense, the whole city is magnificently represented with flags and bunting, the decoration alone costing over $90,000. The hotel Continental was beautifully decorated from pit to dome with flag representing every civilized country in the world. If I had time and space I would like to be able to give a description of some of the show-windows on some of the prominent streets, one window in particular has a scene of Grant lyng in state, the work is done in different colors of silk, it is the work of a Japanese and took 15 months to accomplish it, and is valued at $1,000. It is enclosed in a handsome frame I suppose about 3 by 3. Another window has a life size, one fellow is taking a farewell look at the picture or his mother, sister or sweet heart, here also is a cannon captured by Washington in a battle of the Revolution. Everything looks quite natural in the scene except the Old Southern pine, with the straw on the ground, which is a sickly blue, instead of green. Cleveland was expected and many arrangements and a banquet was intended for him, but he was at Marion quietly enjoying the sea breeze, and following his favorite occupation, "fishing." I would not be surprised in the least if he filled the presidential chair the next term. The women of New England took a very prominent part in the demonstrations: a society called the Women's Relief Corps were well represented by very prominent women. Mrs. John Logan, Mrs. Mary Livermore and many others too numerous to mention seemed to share as much applause as did the President, Ben Butler, Gen. Sherman or Geo. Alger. There were several addresses of welcome made by women, also several responses. The women of Massachusetts seem to fill as responsible positions as do the men. There are Lawyers, Doctors, Dentists, Orators and Publishers. I am expecting each week to see the name of some one of them come out as a candidate for the presidency. I think the men have come to the conclusion that they are all men together, they don't appear very chivalrous towards them sometimes, especially in the horse car, who ever is the lucky one holds the seat, she who is unfortunate enough to find the seats all filled, stands up, bundles or no bundles in hand. I would like to say a few words to the boys and girls, about some things they have been studying in history. Namely Faneuil hall, Bunker hill monument, the Public Garden, the old residence of General LaFayette, and many other things in which I know they would be interested, but time and space prevents me just now but hope I may yet be able to write something of interest to them. I know they have all read of the Boston Common which contains 48 acres in the heart of the city. The new state house with its golden dome can be seen many miles around, it cost $45,000 to build just the dome. I have had some old colored acquaintances to call on us lately, they have been in Boston about 20 years and tell me that they have just now succeeded in paying for a home. The old woman has somewhat hot disputes with her employer, she told her she never knew what slavery was till she came to Boston, the lady asked her why she did not stay in the South then, the old negro answered, "because I was a fool." The negro gets good pay here for work, but it takes it all to live on; house rent from $20 to $60 per month and as this climate calls for plenty of provision, clothes and feed they have no spare money, the South is the place for him, there life is easy and the pot boils plentifully.

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL TALKS OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN OHIO.

A reporter of the New York Star introduced Gov. Campbell a few days since with the following results:—

"How about the Congressional elections?"

"Well, the Democrats expect to elect their candidates in fourteen out of the twenty-one districts in the State. They are hoping to carry fifteen districts, but are pretty sure of fourteen. The Republicans now have sixteen out of the twenty-one. It looks as if McKinley would be beaten in the Eighteenth District by about two thousand."

"Next year is, I suppose, your hot year in Ohio?"

"Next year will be a warm one. It will decide the question as to whether Ohio is a Democratic State or not. A Governor is to be elected to succeed me, and the Legislature to be elected next fall will choose a successor to Senator John Sherman. The election next fall will be of National interest, opening, as it will, the bigger fight of '92."

"What is the Farmers' Alliance going to do on Ohio?"

"It is getting to be a big organization, and it is hard to say what it will do. This year the farmers will not nominate separate tickets, I think, but will choose between the candidates. Next year I shouldn't be surprised if the Farmers' Alliance should sweep the field."

VIRGINIA STATE ALLIANCE.

Virginia State Farmers' Alliance, in convention at Lynchburg last Wednesday with every county in the State represented, adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, the Alliances are shaking hands across the Potomac, across the Mississippi, across the rugged peaks of the Rockies, and, far grander still, across the bloody chasm, across Mason's and Dixon's line; and whereas, conscienceless politicians in our National Congress have advocated measures and expressed sentiments to arouse the old sectional feelings engendered by the war; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the State Farmers' Alliance of Virginia, do intend to grasp with tighter Alliance grip the hands of our Alliance brothers of the North, determined to hold together with locked shields in spite of all efforts to arouse prejudices between us, until the financial emancipation of the laborer and producer is accomplished.

The New York Sun, whose Democracy is of the political intermittent fever kind, says the Alliance "appears now to be moving squarely against the otherwise excellent chances for a democratic majority in the next congress." Has it occurred to the Sun that an Alliance man from North Carolina will inevitably be a democrat as he sits in congress? Would he not vote against a force bill? Would he not be with Senator Vance on the tariff? And as to the sub-treasury bill, did not Col. Polk say The Citizen the other day that it might not be found to be the thing? Besides this, there are some reforms favored by the Alliance that ought to be secured, for they are meant to be for the best interests of the old fashioned sort—Jeffersonian and according to the constitution.—Asheville Citizen.

STATE CONVENTION.

Justices Merrimon and Clark Nominated by Acclamation—The Demands of the Alliance Placed in the Democratic Platform.

Chairman E. L. Chambers Smith called the Democratic State convention to order in Metropolitan Hall on last Wednesday in Raleigh. He said the prospects were as bright as they had ever been in the history of the party. There is no fear of the farmers. They are as good Democrats as read the soil of the State. (Cheers.) The only division is as to whether this or that is the best.

The committee on permanent organization reported as follows: Permanent chairman, Ezekiah A. Guder, of Madison county; Vice President, W. L. Arendell, E. L. Thoro, D. B. Nicholson, J. A. Long, Geo. Houston, Paul B. Means, T. J. Allison, R. Wakefield and C. D. Blanton; Secretaries, S. A. Ashe, Josephus Daniels. The convention got right down to business. R. H. Battle, Esq., placed in nomination Hon. A. S. Merrimon for Chief Justice, and James McCook nominate Hon. Walter Clark for Associate Justice. Both nominations were made by acclamation. The convention then ratified in the same manner the nominations of the Judges of the Superior court.

A strong platform incorporating the demands of the Farmers' Alliance was adopted.

Resolutions were adopted denouncing the iniquitous Lodge Force bill, whose purpose is to establish a second period of reconstruction in the Southern States, to subvert the liberties of our people and influence a new race antagonisms and sectional animosities, and denouncing tyrannical action of Speaker Reed and his shettors, who have changed the Federal House of Representatives from a deliberative body to a machine to register the will of a few partisan leaders, also denouncing the McKinley Tariff bill, as unjust to the consumers of the country and promotive of trusts, combines and monopolies, which have oppressed the people, and especially denouncing the tax on cotton ties and on tin, so largely used by the poorer portion of our people.

Resolved, That the Democracy of North Carolina take great pride in the able and patriotic course of the their Senators and Representatives in Congress in teaching great public questions that have been before them for action, and especially do we appreciate the great ability and zeal of Senator Vance in the protracted contest on the Tariff question, which reflect honor and credit alike on him and the State of North Carolina, and we cordially commend his re-election to the next Legislature, and we commend the wise and satisfactory administration of our State officers.

After the committee on resolutions submitted their report, C. B. Aycock, Esq., of Wayne, made a strong and forcible speech in favor of their adoption. He especially emphasized the value and great importance of the plank which committed the Democratic party to increased taxation for public education and showed that there could be no real reform or betterment of the people without good public schooling.

The resolution was adopted on motion of Josephus Daniels, Esq., without a dissenting voice. Mr. Willis R. Williams, of Pitt, made the most ringing speech of the convention. It was on the platform clause with reference to a ten ownership of land. Some objection was made to this clause, but Mr. Williams thrillingly and earnestly urged its adoption. He cited the fact that this country owned sixty millions of acres of land and held more acres on one hundred millions. He did not want men and aliens to own land in this country whose only interest in this country was revenue and income. He pressed his points eloquently and energetically and he induced the man who objected to the clause to withdraw his objection.

The convention was harmonious and enthusiastic. It was in actual session only three hours and adjourned soon after 4 o'clock.

The Forest and Best. Articles known to medical science are used in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every ingredient is carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. The medicine is prepared under the supervision of thoroughly competent pharmacists, and every step in the process of manufacture is carefully watched with a view to securing in Hood's Sarsaparilla the best possible result.

The Republican herd is in a bad way. Read has the hollow-horn, Blaine the bellows and Harrison the blind stagers.

Remember: "100 Doses One Dollar." Merit: "Peculiar to itself." Purity: Hood's Sarsaparilla.

NEWSY NOTES AND TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Chas. H. Moore, colored, was Tuesday nominated for Congress in opposition to Brower in the Fifth district.

The House Committee on War Claims Tuesday favorably reported a bill to pay William and Mary College $64,000 for damage done the college during the war.

It is clear enough now that a majority of the people of South Carolina prefer Tillman for Governor. So splits are not in order, it would seem.—WHL Messenger.

Aberdeen, Miss., Aug. 20.—The first bale of cotton of the new crop of east Mississippi arrived here yesterday and sold at auction at 16 cents. The crop is already assured to be one of the largest in many years.

Goldsboro, N. C., Aug. 24th.—The first two bales of cotton carried to Goldsboro were raised by Mr. Noah Rouse. He got the premium, a $10. suit of clothes, offered by Messrs. Fucheler and Kern for 1st bale of cotton. It graded middling and sold for 11 cents.

Some of the Alliance men are claiming now that they will have fifty members in the Fifty second Congress. It may be so. They will get seven from North Carolina probably, and they will all be elected as Democrats. We see no danger in this.—WHL Messenger.

Governor Fowle has issued a circular to the State Guard, thanking them for their attendance at the State encampment and commending their deportment and soldierly bearing while there.

The State Guard is of great importance and well deserves the appreciation and support of our people. Some of our State contemporaries seem to think that there is an under current in the State against Senator Vance which may develop strength enough to jeopardize his re-election and urging that the Vance issue be made direct in the county conventions when candidates for the Legislature are named. The Star believes in letting well enough alone, and fails to see the good policy or the necessity of forcing an issue where there is really none, but where one might be made by forcing it.—WHL Star.

A meeting of the trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical College was held here today at which it was stated that the Department of Agriculture will pay to the college only $2,000 during the remainder of the year. It is proposed by the trustees to carry on the college until the Legislature meets, even if it becomes necessary to reduce the salaries of the professors. All of the latter assent to a reduction. The college needs $3,500 to carry it until next year. There is $2,000 on hand now. It is desirable to get $2,000 from the Department of Agriculture at once and it is hoped that $2,000 will be realized from the sale of a lot.

The first bale of cotton of this season was received here this afternoon, (Aug. 21) it was grown in Wake county by Peter Pool, and was only three days later than the earliest bale on record in this market.—Raleigh Cor. WHL Messenger.

A PESTIFEROUS DEMAGOGUE.

There was a pestiferous Radical demagogue in the last State Senate who made himself very conspicuous and disgusting to the Senators and the visitors by his incessant talk and by the parasitic employment of the arts of the demagogue. His name was P. C. Thomas, of the county of Davidson, and if ever a good county was shamefully misrepresented it was by this demagogue. He made a speech against the establishment of a commission, using all the hackneyed and stereotyped arguments which are urged against the proposed law and attempting to ridicule and make little of the arguments that had been made by those in favor of the measure.

This same Thomas is now out in a card asking the Alliance to support him for Congress in the 7th District. He refers to the demands of the Alliance and says he "heartily endorses these resolutions and demands." He is a nice man to appeal to the Alliance for support when he spoke against the proposed law and attempted to ridicule and make little of the arguments that had been made by those in favor of the measure.

CAN NEVER BE.

The Signal, Radical organ here, wants a new political party established, expresses its disgust of the present Republican party, and desires a sort of amalgamation with the Farmers' Alliance. That can never be. As was plainly said yesterday in the convention, the Alliance is inside the Democratic party.—Raleigh Cor. WHL Messenger.

The Argus approves most heartily of the action of the State Democratic Convention in regard to the Farmers' Alliance principles which it adopted in its platform. It was a meet recognition, both of the Alliance as a great body of representative men—the bone and sinew of the country—and the principles they advocate, which are just and right. We shall take occasion to say more on this subject when opportunity affords.—Goldsboro Argus.

A QUONIAM ELEPHANT. At last it is said the Governor's Mansion will be completed in a month or two.

A prolific source of Republican political capital and abuse; a quoniam elephant on the hands of the State; an eloquence and statesmanship generator for our Legislators; is as to its building to be a burden no more. We are glad.—Greensboro Patriot.

REGISTRATION. A new registration has been ordered by the Board of County Commissioners, as requested by the new election law. All voters are required to register thirty days before the second Saturday before election day.

We wish to impress the importance of seeing to this matter, on all Democratic voters. Let no one fail to have his name properly entered on the books within the time required.

WE SAY DETO.

We are receiving constantly, propositions for advertising at about one-fifth our rates. We regard such offers as offensive and consign them to the waste basket. We see some of these advertisements in some of our exchanges. We are surprised that any paper should publish them.—Nashville Argonaut.

LITERARY NOTES.

The forum for September contains a political essay on "Money Interests in Political Affairs," by E. L. Godkin, editor New York Evening Post, in which Mr. Godkin traces to the growth of protection, the enormous and alarming increase of the influence of money in politics, which he regards as the most important political fact of our time. In the same number Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, replies to Senator Chandler's recent article on "The Federal Control of Elections." Other articles in this number will be "The Training of Teachers," by President G. Stanley Hall, of Clark University; "The Christianity of the future," by Professor John S. Blackie, of Edinburgh, Scotland; "The Latest Astronomical News," by Professor Charles A. Young, of Princeton; "Protection Against Tornados," by Lieut. John P. Finley, as well as articles by Simon Sterne, Edward Everett Hale, James E. Murdoch, M. J. Savage, and Alice E. Ives.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

For the Week ending August 23.

CENTRAL OFFICE, Raleigh, N. C.

The correspondent's of the Weekly Crop Bulletin, issued by the North Carolina Experiment Station and State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Signal Service, report that the weather has been very favorable to all crops, especially cotton, in all districts.

Eastern District. Rain-fall, temperature and sunshine have been apparently about the average, with very favorable effects to all growing crops. Prospects for good crops have not been better for several years.

Central District. Rain-fall in this district has been about the average, with favorable effects on all crops. In some portions, however, it was slightly above the average, with somewhat injurious effects. Temperature has been above the average and affected all crops very favorably, especially cotton. Sunshine has been about the average, with favorable effects on all crops.

Western District. Rain-fall in this district for the past seven days has been about the average, with favorable effects. Sunshine about the average, affecting all crops favorably.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which can truly be said to be "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered."

Peculiarly "goodname" more sold in the North than in the South. Peculiar in its record of sales on other preparations. Peculiar in its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations. Be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold in all druggists. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apocryphical, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar.

ENDORSEMENT.
The Farmers' Alliance of Sampson county at its meeting in Clinton on the first Friday in April 1889, endorsed the course of W. E. Stevens in the last Legislature. If you honor a man by giving him a work to do and he performs the work so well that you compliment him, is it not the custom to call on him gain, when you desire a laborer? W. E. Stevens is a farmer, whatever is your interest is his interest. He is the man for Senator! We are aware of the present state of affairs, and will you not nominate a man who will carry the full strength of your party? Why not nominate for the Senate W. E. Stevens, who is the man to stop the strife and save the Democratic party from a division.

The Farmer Members of the last Legislature recognizing the ability of W. E. Stevens selected him as one of a committee of three to see that no legislation hostile to the Farmer should be enacted. He was elected by them as one of the Board of Agriculture. He is the man to represent Old Sampson in the next Senate. Rally to his support!

ALLIANCEMAN.
Blood Poison
Is very liable to follow contact of the hands or face with what is known as poison ivy, especially in hot weather or if the body is perspiring freely. The trouble may subside for a time, only to appear in aggravated powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla thoroughly eradicate every trace of poison from the blood, as the cures it has accomplished conclusively show. It also cures scrofula, salt rheum and all other affections arising from impure blood.

Mr. Perry James, of Taylor's Bridge, brought to Clinton on last Saturday the largest egg-plant we have ever seen. It was eight pounds and measured twenty-nine and a half inches in circumference. It can be seen at the store of Messrs. A. F. Johnson & Co.

We received this week an excellently written communication, mailed at Faison, which we would have been glad to have published had it not contained reference to parties whose names will go before the County Convention of the 10th inst.

Saving Time.—Employer (angrily): Why are you throwing those circulars on the sidewalk? Bill Distributor: Why, boss, that's what the people do to I give 'em to!—Pack. Moral: Advertise in the columns of a newspaper that is read by the people, instead of with posters and circulars.

Our townsman, Mr. D. B. Nicholson was elected one of the Vice-Presidents of the State Convention in session in Raleigh last week. H. E. Faison, Esq., was the member of the committee on permanent organization for the Third District and Capt. Wm. A. Johnson was re-elected a member of the State Executive Committee.

Mr. A. H. Merritt, of Taylor's Bridge, has been kind and thoughtful enough to remember the editor to the extent of a delicious forty-pound melon, and Mr. T. A. Hobbs, of Halls, has been equally as kind to the extent of a jug of excellent cider. If all of the 3,000 gallons he will make is as good as this, those who buy it will get the worth of their money. There is something compensating about being an editor if he can have enough such friends.

On last Friday evening the Degree Team of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, numbering twenty-five men, visited Clinton Lodge 124 for the purpose of exemplifying the degree work.

While here they conferred the initiation, first, second and third degrees upon Judge E. T. Boykin and Mr. W. R. King.

After the degrees were conferred the lodge adjourned and our guest were invited to Bass Hotel, where our lady friends had kindly prepared a splendid supper, of which all ate with great heartiness and good appetite.

The visiting brethren returned to Wilmington Saturday morning highly pleased with the welcome and entertainment they had received. We were happy to have them with us, and return them many thanks for the excellent work which they did while here.

The lady friends of the order have our sincere thanks for the beautiful manner they decorated the lodge-room and for the supper they so elegantly spread.

Our order is growing more and more popular each day; and scarcely a meeting passes but that we receive new applications for membership. Our membership will continue to increase as the merits of the order become more generally known.

"How to Cure All Skin Diseases."
Simply apply "SWAYNE'S OINTMENT." No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose, &c., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for SWAYNE'S Ointment.

Teachers' Institute.

In last week's issue we gave an account of the work of the Institute up to Wednesday night. Thursday we were not able to attend.

Friday was public day, and at 10 o'clock A. M., the large hall in the college building was filled. Prof. Joyner addressed the audience on "Public Education" in words replete with common sense arguments, answering every possible objection in a clear and forcible manner. He was followed by Mr. F. R. Cooper, of this place, who, in his usual happy style, spoke on the "Relations of the Public Schools to the Government."

Dr. B. F. Marable was then called on, who responded briefly, referring to the duties of parents and teachers.

Thursday night Rev. B. F. Marable, D. D., addressed the Institute in his inimitable, original, forcible and entertaining manner. Subject: "Is Education a Polishing Process?" He condemned every system of education that is based upon the polishing idea as radically and wholly wrong. The polishing is secondary and should be incidental. There is no true education that does not have for its prime and basal idea, mental and moral growth.

Religious exercises were conducted on the different days by Rev. O. P. Meeks, Rev. J. L. Stewart, T. H. Sutton and Prof. Joyner. Misses Mary Stewart and Pochontas Britt contributed much to the interest by giving such fine music.

Friday afternoon, after some work by Prof. Joyner, votes of thanks were extended to Prof. Joyner for efficient work done; to Supt. Royal for arrangements for, and interest in the teachers; to Dr. A. Holmes, Rev. J. W. Turner, Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable, to F. R. Cooper, Esq., for their lectures; to the debaters of Tuesday night; to J. A. Oates, Jr., Secretary, for faithful work; to Miss Mary Anderson for use of piano; to the young ladies and others for music; to the ministers for conducting the opening exercises and to the editor of THE CAUCASIAN for publishing proceedings.

The County Superintendent appointed Mr. D. T. Oates and Misses Mamie Ashford and Rosa Culbreth, a committee to prepare suitable resolutions expressive of the feeling of the teachers in memory of Miss Lulu Clute, deceased. The resolutions, paying her a deservedly high tribute as a devoted and conscientious teacher and true christian woman, were read and adopted.

After short and appropriate addresses by Prof. Joyner and Superintendent Royal, the Institute came to a close with these words by Supt. Royal: "We ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip."

The sessions of the Institute were attended by many in the town and from different parts of the county, sometimes the hall being filled. It was a success, and special mention is due Supt. Royal for his efficient management as chairman.

A Church Excursion.
There will be an excursion from Garland on the C. F. and Y. V. Railroad to Wilmington and return on Tuesday, September 24, under management of Mr. J. D. Johnson. The profits, if any, will be equally divided among the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches. Mr. Johnson has procured trustworthy hands to take charge of all horses left at Garland. If you will carry your own feed your horse will be fed, watered and harnessed, and ready for use as soon as the train arrives at night. The train leaves Garland at eight o'clock A. M., and arrives at nine o'clock P. M. Persons from a distance wishing to go to the neighborhood the night before will be welcome at any home in the neighborhood. Ample accommodation for the excursionists will be made and nothing will be lacking to make the excursion of the season. The round trip ticket to Wilmington and back will be one dollar. Don't forget the day on the hour of starting—next Tuesday at eight o'clock A. M.

Competitive Examination.
On Wednesday, September 2nd, 1890, at the Courthouse, in Clinton, there will be a competitive examination of applicants for admission, as County Students, to the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. The applicants will be restricted to section 5th, chapter 110, Laws of 1887.

LEAVY ROYAL, Co. Supt.
The Board of Trustees shall admit to the benefits of the said College, (A. & M.) free of any charges for tuition, upon proper evidence of good moral character and of their inability, or of the inability of their parents or guardians to pay their tuition, a certain number of youths, to be determined by them, not less than one hundred and twenty, and shall apportion the same to the different counties applying, according to the relative number of members in the House of Representatives of North Carolina.—Ed.

Duplin Items.
A private letter from Kenansville says:

State County Institute is in session. Had a large attendance yesterday and to-day. Debates by teachers to-night. Dr. Marable gave an interesting and able talk yesterday. Prof. Joyner has given some very fine lectures. Supt. Shaw is doing a good work for the schools of Duplin.

LITTLE COHABIE.
Died, Mrs. Betsy Butler, wife of the late William Butler, on Monday of last week, aged about sixty-five years. She had been suffering with a cancer for some time.

Some weeks ago the fighting capacity of Roseboro was two hundred pounds to the square inch, but we think Parkersburg can beat that now. Sorry to hear the price on concentrated lye is rising, as we understand they use a box to the lick in fighting down there.

Mrs. Dr. F. J. Cooper is anticipating an enjoyable trip on visiting her sister in Augusta, Ga.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. L. A. Baker's child of Roseboro, aged about ten months. Died August 18th, 1890.

We are glad to know Mr. M. Bulard is going to plant his new saw mill in Roseboro, which will give us three team mills, eleven dwellings, nine stores, and five of those stores are doing good business.

LITTLE COHABIE DEMOCRAT.
LISBON.
The farmers of this section are very busy with their fodder.

Mr. George Herring has been very sick, but we are glad to state that he is better.

Miss Mollie Pridgen, of Franklin is visiting Miss Ella Parker, of this township.

Mr. R. J. Parker, we understand, will leave for Georgia this week. We hope him much success.

DITCH BRIDGE.
MINGO.
That dreadful and fatal disease diphtheria again comes on, and regardless to families takes three of Mr. John and Mary J. Hair's children without a week's warning; age eleven, nine and seven years respectively. All that could be comprised in a dutiful set of children, loving, obedient pupils, meek, devoted children, was strikingly prominent in their exemplary life. The spring birds hushed their warbling, even the great light of day seemed to grow saddened, while a large congregation of mourners followed the children to the place prepared for the living. The stricken family have the sympathy of all. H. M. W.

Mr. Editor: I will give you a line or two from this vicinity.

The farmers are about through fodder.

Mr. F. A. Jackson and wife have been visiting Mr. J. D. Williams.

Little D. S. Jernigan left for his home, in Dunn, Thursday.

The Messrs. Warren have their new gin house and will be ready for work in a few days.

What is the matter that THE CAUCASIAN that we did not get to see it on last Friday? We greatly miss it when it fails to come.

Look out for the primaries. Mingo is entitled to a man. We are also anxious to get a true man for the Senate.

There will be a baptizing at Warren's mill on the second Sunday in September. There will also be services at Hickory Grove on the same day and Saturday preceding.

DISMAL.
This township is blessed with fine crops.

Mr. E. M. Hobbs is teaching a public school at Mory Branch, near this place. He had a vacation last week to attend the Institute at Clinton.

Mr. Frederick Matthis, an esteemed citizen of this township, departed this life August 15th. He was about 78 years of age. He was one who believed in a saving faith and lived a consistent member of the Baptist Church for several years. He was afflicted by a cancer.

Mr. Wade H. Butler, of Roseboro, entered Clement Model school last Monday. Mr. Allen Lee, of Johnston county, entered two weeks ago.

We are solid for a Railroad Commission.

LAMSDIE.
We are very glad to see our farmers in this township so cheerful about their fine corn and cotton. We are nearly through with fodder.

We hope that there will not be a single man, who has reached the age of twenty-one, who will fail to remember the sixth day of September, and be sure to attend the primary meetings. It is the duty of every man to see that the very best men in each township are sent as delegates to the Convention. We hope the people throughout the county are as much interested in the primary meetings as the people of Dismal. The greatest interest in this section of the county is over the Senate.

South Clinton.

Rev. J. W. Turner will hold divine services at Chesnut School house on next Sunday, August 31st, at 11 A. M. The congregation at this place of worship have been unusually large recently, and it is hoped a continued interest will be manifested in the future services.

NEWTON GROVE.
Mr. T. W. Underwood is now at the North purchasing his fall stock of goods.

Bro. C. F. R. Komey delivered an address before Bluff Alliance at our last regular meeting replete with good Alliance common sense to the core. The good old brother told us how to "git there" in more ways than one. Stick to those who have proved a friend. Verbum sat supit.

PINEY GROVE.
The protracted meeting at Goshen is still in progress at 4 o'clock (Monday). Mrs. J. D. Spencer is with us. She full of faith and the Spirit, and speaks words of wisdom and love, holding the large congregations spell-bound.

A Missionary Mass Meeting will be held at Goshen between the third and fourth Sundays of October, beginning on Wednesday.

The Farmers' Picnic last Thursday was a big success. Hon. B. F. Grady's speech was learned and entertaining. Many other good speeches were made. The occasion was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Carpenter, the lady evangelist, has been conducting a series of exhortations at Goshen M. E. church. Her exercises are unusually interesting, and appealed strongly to the good sense of the congregation. She has performed a good work in her labor of love for the people.

NORTH CLINTON.
A protracted meeting will commence at Brown's church on next Friday. Rev. J. W. Bell, the pastor, will be assisted by Rev. A. A. Butler.

Speaking of good farmers, Mr. J. H. Royal has one of the best crops we have seen this year.

HALLS.
A protracted meeting at Mary's Chapel closed on last Saturday. There were five additions to the church. Rev. Mr. Bell was much pleased with the excellent and earnest assistance of Rev. Anderson Butler.

Supt. Geo. Wiggins has a fine Sunday School at this place.

Miss Irene Cronmarty, of Cypress Creek is teaching school near Mr. O. F. Herring's. Her school opened last Monday with eighteen pupils.

TAYLOR'S BRIDGE.
Miss Mary Hall of Fayetteville is visiting at Mr. C. J. Williams.

There is a protracted meeting at Trinity church this week.

PERSONALS.
Miss Jesse Wooten is visiting at Mrs. W. E. Stevens.

Miss Eva Matthis, who has been visiting in Clinton, returned last Friday.

Mr. Charlie Patterson has just returned from a week's visit to friends in Durham.

Mrs. W. E. Stevens returned from a visit to her father's, in Columbus county, on last Tuesday.

Miss Anna Bizzell, who has been visiting for several weeks in Winston, N. C., returned Tuesday.

Miss Mittie Bannan returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks at Wilmington and the Hammocks.

Miss Phil Williams, who has been spending the summer in Clinton, has returned to her home, at Taylor's Bridge.

Mr. J. T. Murphy, of the U. S. Treasury Department, arrived in town last Friday evening. "He will spend his month's vacation here."

Misses Katie and Rena Williams, of Wallace, N. C., are visiting Miss Lillian Chesnut, of Georgia, who is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. H. H. Britt.

Mr. Benjamin Bell, of the job office of Jackson & Bell, Wilmington, N. C., gave us a pleasant call, while attending the O.M.F.-Fellows' meeting here last week.

Mrs. Mary E. Peterson, of the firm of Mrs. E. E. Peterson & Co., left Monday for New York. She says that the Racket Store will make things lively when she returns.

Mr. W. G. Rackley, one of our best merchants, left Monday for the Northern markets. He will purchase a large and well selected stock of dress goods, shoes and clothing, and in addition a line of general merchandise. His idea is to sell the greatest quantity of goods on the smallest profit.

Quarterly Conference.

Our Quarterly Conference for Clinton Circuit was held at Goshen last Saturday. We had a small turn out of official members of the Conference. The spiritual condition of the circuit was reported as not much differing from that of former reports during the year. Only one protracted meeting has been held so far this year, others are to be held very soon.

The financial report was for the quarter of about four months, $100.20. Of this amount:

Clinton church paid, $19.85
Goshen " 41.55
Komey's " 20.50
Johnson's " 0.00
Browning's " 2.50
Kendall's " 2.85

The Sunday School report showed six schools in good condition. This department of Church work is perhaps better managed and with greater success than usual.

Prof. J. D. Ezell was granted license to exhort.

The committee on selling the parsonage not having made a report of their work were continued to next Conference.

The Pastor was authorized to call the Board of Trustees together in Clinton at an early day to be set by him for the purpose of conferring with one another and making arrangements to buy or build a parsonage.

Brother Swinell preached three good Gospel sermons. He is a willing worker, and has endeared himself to his hearers, and his people. We all love him very much.

Rev. J. B. Barker, of Newton Grove circuit, was present on Saturday. He desires a re-arrangement of circuits, which to our mind is altogether impractical.—Christian Leader.

Eczema Cured by S. S. S.
Mrs. S. Renault, Waldo, Fla., writes the following under date of Feb. 11, 1890: "I suffered with Eczema for about two years. About this time I was advised by friends to try your Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and I am happy to say that after using six bottles I was entirely cured, and I never lose an opportunity of recommending it to any one I find suffering from any disease of the blood."

He profits by his Friends' Experience.
"I have been troubled with pimples and blotches on my face for years, during which time I tried numbers of standard remedies, but without receiving any benefit. Profiting by the advice and experience of a friend I commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and the effect it had on me overshadowed all expectations. After taking two bottles the pimples and blotches entirely disappeared, and my skin is clear and without blemish."

THE WORK OF THE EVANGELIST.

In an interview with Dr. W. A. Nelson, of Asheville, he suggested a line of labor in which an Evangelist, who was qualified for the work, might be very useful and do an important service in very many of our churches.

Such an Evangelist as is here contemplated should not have as his chief aim the bringing of the Gospel to bear upon the hearts of the unconverted directly, but the bringing of the work of converting souls without the help of Evangelists, or any external aid indeed.

To effect this, two very damaging impressions must be removed—first, the idea which existively prevails that the pastor is responsible for the conversion of the ungodly. The truth is, the church and pastor are both equally responsible for this blessed work—God has made them so, and they were intended in the divine economy of grace to work together. The many figures used in the Bible, the salt, the light, the seed, the leaven, the epistles known and read of all men—every one of these and many others, go to show that the work of diffusing the Gospel light and receiving souls to Christ rests upon the membership of the church even more than upon the pastors. The philosophy of the New Testament Evangelism calls for the personal influence and the personal effort of every individual member of Christ's Kingdom. The best preaching on the part of the pastor will be powerless to convert sinners unless the church is interested in and actively laboring for the same end. Again and again has this been demonstrated in the experience of all pastors. The labors of the most successful, and gifted evangelist may be secured, but nothing will be accomplished until the people feel the worth and danger of souls and get down to praying and laboring for their salvation. The people then need to be taught that they not only ought, but that they can be effective agents in winning souls to Christ.

The other serious error into which the churches have fallen is that they need not expect conversions except as the result of special revival efforts. Given a duly organized church, with a good pastor, and conversions should follow legitimately—it is constituted for this very purpose and possesses powers adequate to the production of such a result. A church, in a normal, healthy spiritual condition cannot fail to have conversions under the ordinary preaching of the Gospel. Times of special refreshing from the presence of the Lord will come, and ought to be prayed for and eagerly desired. There always have been times of gracious revival in the history of grace, but surely no church ought to be satisfied to remain long without the manifestation of converting power. The custom of our churches, in town and country, of exhibiting a periodical, spasmodic convulsive zeal for the regeneration of souls has proven a Pandora's box of evils, most, if not all of which, might be avoided if the churches were expecting the work of the Lord to go on continuously and were laboring with that intent.

It is very certain that the present state of things in the churches is far from satisfactory, and it is growing worse and worse from year to year. I have seen it illustrated in my church in Wilmington. Last spring we had a series of meetings. Bro. W. B. Oliver, of Fayetteville, preached the Gospel in great purity and power for two weeks; I have scarcely heard better preaching, or that which was better calculated to awaken saints and sinners and yet the net gain to the church was very meager, and that just because the membership never became aroused; they never got to work in earnest and seemed to be awaiting some extraordinary appliances to be used, such as characterized the great and blessed Pearson meeting two years ago. The good old-fashioned, spontaneous revivals which used to bless the churches, under the leadership of the pastor, or with the help of a brother pastor, seem almost to belong to the past.—Charity and Children.

Last week Dr. Talmage preached a sermon at a Farmers' encampment, during the course of which he related the case of a farmer who said to his indolent son: "There are a hundred dollars buried deep in that field." The son went to work and plowed it very deep, and then complained that he had not found the money; but when the crop had been gathered and sold for a hundred dollars more than any previous year then the young man took the hint as to what his father meant when he said there were a hundred dollars buried down in that field.

The Advocate believes the Alliance has been no small factor in securing diversified crops. We have been preaching that doctrine for years and we are glad to be in such good company in a noble cause.—Wilson Advocate.

TAKING GOD AT HIS WORD.

Mr. Wesley once asked a pious old sister what was faith? She immediately replied: "Taking God at His Word." Mr. Wesley, much pleased at the simplicity and correctness of the answer, told his preachers in Conference that there could be no better definition. During a religious awakening in a factory village in New England, a foreman was convicted but could not find peace. His superior sent him a letter, requesting him to call at six o'clock. He promptly came. "I see you are taking me at my word," said his master. "Yes," said the foreman. "Well, see," said the master, "here is another letter sending for you by One far more trustworthy than I can be," holding up a slip of paper with some text of Scripture written on it. The foreman took the paper and began to read slowly. "Come—unto-me—all—ye—that—labor,—and—I—will—give—you—rest." His lips quivered, his eyes filled with tears, and he said at length: "Am I just to believe that in the same way I believed your letter?" "Just in the same way," said the master. "Take God at his Word just as you take me at my word." The man did so and was saved.—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

A MINE OF TAR.

The old "Tar, Pitch and Turpentine State" is about to show up the great-st conceivable possibilities in that line. The old State has the greatest possibilities in everything if they were only known and developed.

But the matter of interest now is what appears to be a mine of actual tar which has been found on Mr. R. S. Pullen's land, about four miles from the city. The substance, whatever it is, comes from out the side of a bank of earth in a stream about the consistency of putty. This stream (if it may be called a stream) forces its way out of the land pure and solid. It is about six inches in diameter, it is cut off when three or four inches have oozed out.

People who have been there declare it is pure tar. Mr. W. C. McMackin, among others, has been there. He says "It looks like tar, smells like tar, tastes like tar, and by Jupiter, it is tar."—State Chronicle.
